

Page 1 of 1

Resource Name or #: 545 South Euclid Avenue

☐ Continuation ☒ Update

P2. Location: 545 South Euclid Avenue

B10. Significance:

This property was listed in the National Register of Historic Places on July 7, 1983, as an individual resource in the Bungalow Courts of Pasadena thematic nomination. In addition, it is a contributor to a small grouping of properties that is eligible for landmark district designation. Other contributors to the district include: 254-56, 278-82, 288, 298, 312, 328-30 and 331-33 Pleasant Street and 503, 505-07, and 531 S. Euclid Avenue.

Year of Construction: 1888 (two-story house, relocated to rear of property in 1921); 1921 (four one-story units)

Architect: The Postle Company (1921)

Builder: The Postle Company (1921)

P5b. Description/Date of Photo: View of the west elevation/April 29, 1998

P8. Recorded by: Leslie Heumann, PCR, 233 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 130, Santa Monica, CA 90401
Revised by Mary Jo Winder; May 5, 2004

P9. Date Recorded: August 30, 2000