Continuation Update

P2. Location: 189 N. Marengo Ave.

B10. Significance:

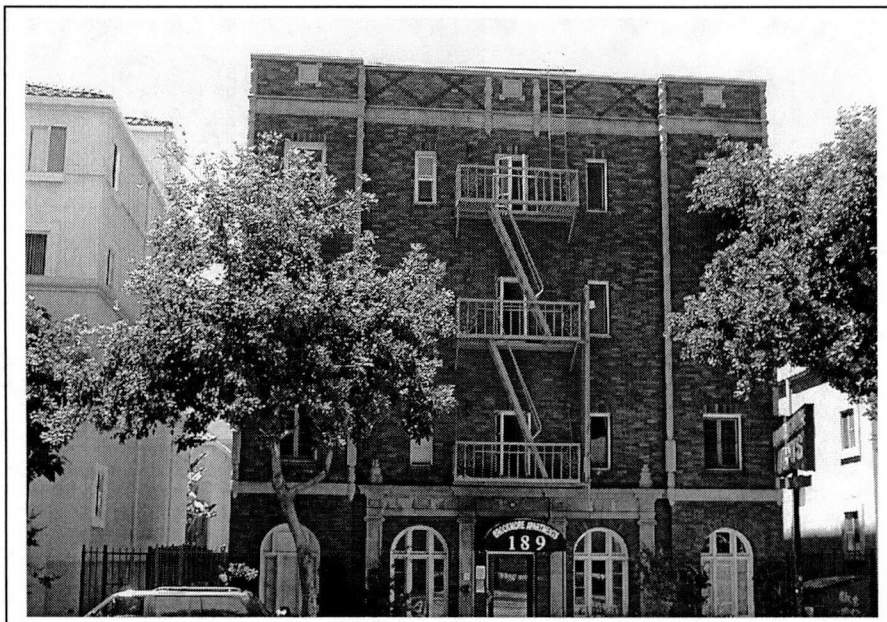

This property is included in the City of Pasadena Multi-Family Historic Resources Survey (2002). It appears ineligible for listing in the National Register because of alterations to windows on the front elevation. However, it retains the majority of its original architectural features, and therefore appears eligible for local designation under Criterion 3 as an important locally significant representative example of urban multi-family housing with Classical Revival features.

Year of Construction: 1924

Architect: Edward B. Rust

Builder: Luther T. Mayo
